Maitri	Temperament and shared values	Manushya (Human)	Dev (Divine)	0	Incompatible
Gan
Rashi	Moon sign compatibility and emotional bond	Capricorn	Pisces	6	Excellent
Nadi	Genetic and physiological compatibility	Anta	Anta	0	Incompatible
Total				20	Below Average

Detailed Explanation:

1. Varna (1/4): This Guna symbolizes the couple's spiritual compatibility and dharma. Brad's Varna is Vaishya (merchant), while Angelina's is Brahmin (teacher/priest). This difference suggests varying approaches to spirituality and life purpose, leading to a lower score.
2. Vashya (1/4): This assesses the dynamics of power and mutual attraction. Brad belongs to Chatushpad Vashya (attracted to stability), while Angelina belongs to Jalchar Vashya (seeking emotional depth). This mismatch can lead to misunderstandings and challenges in the relationship, resulting in a below-average score.
3. Tara (3/4): This Guna examines the compatibility based on the birth stars' placement, impacting destiny and well-being. With a score of 3, they have average compatibility, suggesting a mix of harmonious and challenging periods throughout their relationship.

4. Yoni (4/4): Representing sexual compatibility and physical attraction, this Guna signifies a strong intimate connection between Brad and Angelina. His Nakul (Mongoose) Yoni and her Gaja (Elephant) Yoni are considered highly compatible, contributing to a fulfilling physical relationship.
5. Graha Maitri (5/5): This crucial Guna assesses the mental compatibility and friendship between the couple based on their ruling planets. Brad's ruling planet is Saturn, and Angelina's is Jupiter. This pairing creates a harmonious balance, fostering mutual understanding and strong mental compatibility.
6. Gan (0/6): This Guna analyzes the couple's temperament and shared values based on their Ganas. Brad's Manushya Gan (realistic and practical) clashes with Angelina's Dev Gan (idealistic and spiritual). This significant difference can lead to conflicting perspectives and challenges in finding common ground.
7. Rashi (6/6): Rashi assesses emotional compatibility based on the Moon signs. Brad's Capricorn Moon and Angelina's Pisces Moon are considered highly compatible. This suggests a deep emotional connection and understanding.
8. Nadi (0/8): Nadi signifies physiological and genetic compatibility. Both Brad and Angelina have the same Nadi, Anta. While generally considered incompatible, this can also indicate a karmic bond.

Overall Compatibility:

The total Guna Milan score for Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie is 20, considered below average for marital harmony according to traditional Vedic Astrology.

Positive Aspects: Their strengths lie in their strong physical and emotional connection. They share a deep understanding and attraction towards each other. Mentally, they complement each other well, leading to good communication and mutual respect.

Challenges: Their primary challenges stem from differing values, life goals, and approaches to life. There might be power struggles and misunderstandings due to their contrasting Vashyas.

Conclusion: While their Guna Milan score suggests potential challenges, it's crucial to remember that Guna Milan is just one aspect of compatibility analysis. A holistic assessment would involve studying the complete birth charts, including planetary placements and aspects.

Disclaimer: This analysis is based on traditional Vedic Astrology principles and should not be considered the sole determinant of relationship compatibility.
